

What's Your Story, California?

Grant funding is now available from the California Council for the Humanities!

The California Story Fund (CSF) is a competitive grant program that supports community-centered, story-based public humanities projects that contribute to our evolving understanding of California, past and present. Over $2 million has been granted to more than 300 projects through the program since its inception in 2003.

Next deadline: June 15, 2011

Join us for information meetings in the Central Valley this spring to learn more about the program, review grant guidelines and application requirements, and discuss project ideas with staff.
