Christine Haverty Johnson

Christine Haverty Johnson celebrated her 100th birthday at a gathering of family and friends. It was not only Chris' 100th birthday; it was her first birthday party ever. It was a true delight and honor for my family to celebrate Chris' special day with her. When we asked her if we could host a 100th birthday celebration for her, she was thrilled like a small child would be, yet insisted that the article in the newspaper not mention a word about her living alone (her insistence was endearing, especially since we hadn't yet thought about putting an article in the paper).

We have never known anyone quite like Chris. Her mind was incredibly sharp and she was in better physical condition at age 100 than most 80 year olds. Chris was accepting of everyone, and was a wonderful gift in our life, and an inspiration to all of us that knew and loved her. She is sorely missed. Rest in peace, Chris.

Until we meet again,
