

The Dr. Ethan R. Sellers Memorial Scholarship was established to honor the memory and legacy of Dr. Ethan Ross Sellers who passed away on July 4, 2019. Up to two annual scholarships will be awarded to students who are pursuing health care studies or enrolled in graduate school, and who come from disadvantaged or underserved backgrounds, or who are underrepresented in health care professions. Scholarships awarded are made possible from the Dr. Ethan R. Sellers Memorial Scholarship Fund, an endowed component fund of the Solano Community Foundation.

Eligible scholarship applicants must meet these basic criteria:

- 1) be from, currently attending, or planning to attend a school in Solano County, Napa County, Yolo County or the state of Pennsylvania and
- 2) have completed at least three years of undergraduate studies by the end of June of the year in which the scholarship will be awarded and be in pursuit of a 4-year university degree (at a minimum) in the health care field (nursing school, medical technology, etc.),

OR

- 3) be accepted to a post-graduate program in a health care field or be a post-grad student pursuing a career in a health care field (medical school, pharmacy school, etc.) and
- 4) is or will have maintained at least a 3.2 cumulative grade point average (GPA) during their undergraduate studies.

Dr. Sellers was a 2016 graduate of Thomas Jefferson University Sidney Kimmel School of Medicine in Philadelphia, PA. He then attended the Family Medicine Residency program at Kaiser Permanente Medical Center-Vallejo and graduated in June 2019. Ethan was to continue his education with a Palliative Care Fellowship at UC Davis Medical Center. During both Medical School and Residency, Dr. Sellers was elected to the Gold Humanism Honor Society. This scholarship honors Ethan's legacy: he loved life and lived it to its fullest. His hearts' desire was to serve others, and although his time in medicine was brief, he touched many lives, bringing his warmth, compassion and kindness to all he came in contact with.
